and for the more effectually improving the North Side of the Street aforesaid, site to purchase the Heavens and Buildings in St. Andrew's Church, near St. Andrew's Church, the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, are desirous to purchase the Way or Passage at St. Andrew's Church, likewise to purchase the Heavens and Buildings at the Entrance into the King's New Inn, at St. Andrew's Church, aforesaid, and it will also be necessary in order to complete the Improvements in Some Acts, that the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council should be empowered to make and erect good and sufficient Ditches and Sewers there; and the Person who shall consent to advance or contribute any Part of the said Monies, shall in respect of the Sums which they shall so respectively advance, be entitled to Assessies at such Rates of Interest as the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, in Common Council assembled, shall think reasonable; to commence from Christmas Day last past, to be payable Half-yearly, and to continue until Redemption thereof by Payments of such respective Principal Sums.

And Common Council shall cause Bonds or other Securities to be given for such Assessies, assignable by Indentment, &c.

III. [16th Year 1802.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, entitled, An Act for rendering more convenient and for better regulating the Port of London, whereby certain Persons therein named, and others therein described, were declared to be created into a Company, which should be known by the Style or Firm of The Wylle Indes East Company, and were empowered to subscribe the Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, as and for a Capital or Joint Stock, and to appoint, from Time to Time, as therein is mentioned, twenty-one Persons, who should be, and be called The Directors for collecting and managing the Affairs and Business of the said Company; which Directors and their Successors, from Time to Time to be appointed, were empowered, within the Space of five Years from and after the passing of the said recited Act, to make and complete navigable Docks, Basins, and Quays, with Quays or Wharfs and Warehouses adjoining, or attached to the same, to be situate in such Part as is therein described of the Tract of Land called The Isle of Dogs, in the Parish of Southward, otherwise known, in the County of Middlesex, and to build such of the said Docks as should be used for the unloading of Ships, and the Quays, Warehouses, and other Buildings, to be made and built upon or near the Banks thereof, with a Wall and Bridge as therein is mentioned; and it was thereby enacted, that for the Term of twenty-one Years, commencing from the Time when the said Works should be ready for the Reception of Ships and Goods, all the Ships and Vessels which should come from the Wylle Indes into the River Thames, with Cargoes of Wylle Indes Produce, should unload and load their respective Cargoes within some or one of the said Docks, or on the Quays or Wharfs which should belong thereto; and that the Duties which should be payable to the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors in respect of the same, should nevertheless, during the said Term, be abated in such Quays or Wharfs, and not elsewhere (except as in the said Act is excepted); and certain Rates and Duties therein mentioned were thereby appointed to be paid to the said Company, for the Ships and Vessels which should use the said Docks, and for Goods imported from the Wylle Indes, which should be loaded or discharged on or board of such Ships or Vessels; and the said Company were thereby empowered to engage their said Capital to any such further Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding his hundred thousand Pounds of Capital, as by any General Meeting of the said Company should be deemed necessary and expedient; and in case the said five hundred thousand Pounds, to be raised by Subscription for the Use of the said Company, should not be all so raised, or should be raised insufficient, then the said Company were thereby empowered to borrow on the Credit of the said Rates and Duties such Sum or Sums of Money, as together with the said Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds so subscribed, or such Part thereof as should be actually raised as aforesaid, might make and amount to any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of six hundred thousand Pounds; for completing the said Works: And whereas, although

[16th Geo. 3. c. 25. § 31, &amp;c.]

Provided nevertheless, and to be further enacted, That, from and after each Publication, and during each Term of twenty-one Years as aforesaid, in case any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandises as aforesaid, shall remain unentered at the proper Revenue Offices for the Space of eight Days upon the Ship or Vessel impounding the same that have been reported at the Custom House, (or for the Space of nine Days when such eighth Day shall happen to be Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday, or a Day appointed by His Majesty's Proclamations for the Purpose of a General Fast or Thanksgiving), then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful for the Officers of His Majesty's Customs or Excise, whose Duty it shall be to attend the unloading of such Ship or Vessel, and they are hereby required to seize for and on Behalf of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, all such Goods, Wares, or Merchandises, as shall be remain unentered, in order to secure the Duties payable to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in respect thereof, together with the Charges of such Seizure, and all Costs, Charges, and Expenses, which shall be occasioned thereby, and thereupon shall forthwith proceed to land and warehouse the same; and in case the Whole of the said Duties, Costs, Charges, and Expenses, and the Rates and Duties payable to the said Company, shall not be paid within the Space of one Calendar Month from the Time of the Seizure of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandises, it shall and may be lawful for any two or more of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, or any two or more of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Excise, immediately after the Expiration of such Calendar Month, to order and direct the same to be sold, and the Proceeds arising from such Sale (after Payment of the Rates and Duties which shall be due and payable to the said Company), to be applied according to the Direction of an Act, which in the twelfth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intitled, Act for encouraging the Tobacco Trade; any Law, Statute, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVII. And to be further enacted, That, from and after each Publication, and during each Term of twenty-one Years as aforesaid, no Ship or Vessel which shall arrive at the River Thames, with Wight India Produce on board, shall on any Account or Pretence whatsoever, be permitted to break Bulk, or land any Part of her Cargo, and the Whole of such Cargo shall be duly entered at the Custom House, or other proper Revenue Office (except in the Case of Staves as herein-before mentioned); and every such Ship or Vessel shall be land or placed along the Side of one of the said Quays, in order that the Cargo thereof may be discharged upon such Quay; and if such Ship or Vessel shall be discharged or unloaded upon one of the said Quays, in due Succession or Rotation, according to the respective Dates or Times when the Entries of their Cargoes at the Custom House and other proper Revenue Offices shall have been fully made and completed, and the Warrants of such Entries delivered to the proper Officers of the said Trade Company appointed to receive the same, or the unentered Part of such Cargoes shall be seized as aforesaid, and not according to the Times of the respective Arrivals of such Ships or Vessels in any of the said Docks, Basins, or Cays, or in case of his Death, Disability, or Incapacity, the next Chief or Senior Officer then actually serving, or employed on board such Ship or Vessel, shall, during all the Time employed in unloading or discharging such Ship or Vessel, actually remain on board, and superintend, aid, and assist in such unloading or discharging; and that every Master or Commander, or in case of his Death, Disability, or Incapacity, the next Chief or Senior Officer then actually serving or employed on board of such Ship or Vessel, who shall neglect or refuse so to superintend, aid, and assist in the unloading and discharging of the same as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding fifty Pounds nor less than twenty Pounds.

Cap. 128.

An Act for making and maintaining certain Railways to communicate with the Manchester Canal Navigation, and for enabling the Company of Proprietors of that Navigation to raise a further Sum of Money; to complete their Undertaking; and for explaining and amending the Acts, passed in the thirty-second and thirty-seventh Years of his present Majesty's Reign, relating thereto. [17th June 1802.]

[Private incorporated by the Name of The Railway Transact Company.]

XLIX. And whereas by an Act passed in the twenty-seventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, *An Act for regulating the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for applying the said Duties, together with the other Duties comprising the publick Revenues, for permitting the Importations of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandises, the Producers or Manufacturers of the European Dominions of the French King into this Kingdom; and for applying certain unclaimed Moulds remaining in the Exchange for the Payment of Debts due on Loans to the Satisfaction of the Nation's Debt; and by the Schedule marked (A), annexed to the said Act, certain Duties of Customs are imposed on Coals and Cakes brought Coastwise from Port to Port in Great Britain, except into the Port of London, and except that Coals and Cakes carried from the Bridge of Derling which is on the Path of Firth, to the Town of Dunbar or to Redbank, or to any Port between them, or from Ellen Foot to Sand Head in the County of Cumberland, or from any Creek or Place to any other Creek or Place between Ellen Foot and Sand Head aforesaid, are not, by reason of such Carriage, liable to any Duty of Customs: And whereas by an Act, passed in the same Year, intituled, *An Act for making further Provisions in regard to such Vessels as are particularly directed in an Act made in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for the more effectual Prevention of Smuggling in this Kingdom, and for amending the said Act in other Parts and Clauses more particularly directed therein, for taking off the Duties on Fuels in which Wax or Oil is imported; for laying an additional Duty on Foreign Goods imported; for taking off the Duty on Glass the Growth of Africa, imported into this Kingdom; and for amending several Laws relative to the Revenue of Customs, and other matters, that by the said former Act passed in the third Session of Parliament, certain Duties of Customs were imposed on Coals, Cakes, and Cinders, brought Coastwise within the Kingdom of Great Britain, and that Doubts might arise concerning the true Intent and Meaning of the Words therein mentioned, it was enacted, that the several and respective Duties of Customs imposed on Coals, Cakes, and Cinders brought Coastwise, within Great Britain, should be charged and paid upon all Coals, Cakes, and Cinders respectively, which should be shipped, or waterborne in order to be shipped or land on board any Ship or Vessel to be carried by Sea, and which should be carried by Sea in any Ship or Vessel from any Port or Place within the Kingdom of Great Britain, and which should be brought or landed in any other Port or Place within the said Kingdom of Great Britain, save and except in such Cases where special Provision is particularly and expressly made to the contrary in the said former Act, or in the Schedule or Tables annexed thereto: And whereas, in Consideration that the said Company of Proprietors of the Manchester Canal Navigation had expended large Sums of Money in making their said Canal, and that the said Duties of Customs, if levied upon Coals and Cakes carried upon the said Canal for the Purpose of being afterwards carried to different Ports or Places on the River Sever to the Eastward of the Islands called The Helms, would be a Disadvantage to the Carriage of such Articles, it was by the said heretofore mentioned Act, of the thirty-seventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign, enacted, that no Coals or Cakes carried on the said Canal, and afterwards carried from any Port or Place in the Eastward of the said Islands called The Helms, to any other Port or Place in or upon the River Sever, shall be the Eastward of the said Islands, without passing to the Westward thereof, should be subject or liable to the Payment of the Duties payable in respect of Coals or Cakes carried by Sea: And whereas the said Duties of Customs would in the Manner be a great Disadvantage to the Carriage of Coals and Cakes upon the Railways and Transroads hereby authorized to be made, for the Purpose of Experimentation; he a therefore further enacted, That no Coals or Cakes which shall be carried or conveyed in any of the Railways or Transroads to be made in pursuance of this Act, and which shall be afterwards carried or conveyed from any Port or Place to the Eastward of the said Islands called The Helms, to any other Port or Place in or upon the River Sever, shall be subject or liable to the Payment of the Duties payable in respect of Coals or Cakes carried by Sea: Provided always nevertheless, that no such Coals or Cakes shall be so carried as aforesaid, from any Port or Place in or upon the said River to any other Port or Place in or upon the same River, over of such Duties of Customs as aforesaid, unless such Duties thereof shall be first made, and such Documents procured as are by Law required in the Case of Coals and Cakes carried Coastwise.

L. And whereas the Port of Bridgewater in the River Sever lies to the Eastward of the said Islands called The Helms, and may be entered by a Passage also to the Eastward of the said Islands, but the Navigation of such Passage being dangerous, it is usual for Vessels bound down the River Sever to the said Port of Bridgewater, to pass a short Distance to the Westward of the said Islands, for the Purpose of entering the Port by a more safe Passage; and a Doubt hath in consequence arisen, whether Coals or Cakes carried from any Place to the Eastward of the said Islands to the said Port of Bridgewater by the latter Passage, fall within the aforesaid Exemption from Sea Duties, contained in the said Act of the thirty-seventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign: he it therefore further enacted, That no Coals or Cakes which shall be carried or conveyed either on the said Manuscript Coast, or on any of the Railways or Tramroads to be made in pursuance of this Act, and which shall be afterwards carried or conveyed to the said Part of Bridgewater, shall be subject or liable to the Payment of the Duties payable in respect of Coals or Cokes carried by Sea, although the same shall first pass to the Westward of the said Islands, for the Purpose of entering the said Part of Bridgewater with greater Safety: Provided always, that no Vessel carrying Coals or Cokes, shall touch at any other Port or Place to the Westward of The Nelson in her Voyage to Bridgewater; and that no such Coals or Cokes shall be so carried as afloat, from any Port or Place as or upon the said River Severn to any other Port or Place as or upon the said River, free of such Duties of Customs as afloat, unless such Entries thereof shall be first made, and such Documents procured, as are by Law required in the Case of Coals and Cokes carried Coastwise.

[17th June 1803.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the forty-second Year of his Majesty's Reign, entitled, An Act for consolidating the Provisions of the several Acts passed for the Redemption and Sale of the Land Tax into one Act; and for making further Provision for the Redemption and Sale thereof; and for amending certain respects to the Right of Purveyance to be used as Soldiers for Knights of the Tower, and other Members to serve in Parliament, in respect of Wages, Livings, or Treatments, the Land Tax upon which shall have been released or purchased, it is enacted, that the Amount of the Money to be paid as the Consideration for the Redemption or Purchase of Land Tax, in the Cases therein specified, shall be calculated, settled, and ascertained according to the Price of such, to be from Time to Time transmitted to the Receivers-General, or their Deputies in England, or to the Collectors in Scotland, in the Manner therein directed, and according to the Table in the Schedule to the said Act annexed, marked (L), and the Rules and Directions therein contained: And whereas the said Table contains only the Amount of the several Sums of Money to be paid for the Redemption or Purchase of Land Tax, when the three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities are at any Price between Sixty and Forty, it is therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That whenever the Price of the three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities to be transmitted pursuant to the Directions of the said Act, shall be at any Price between Fifty and sixty, the Amount of the Money to be paid as the Whole, or as any Installment or Installments, of the Consideration for the Redemption or Purchase of any Land Tax, shall be settled and adjusted, and the Payments made, according to the Table contained in the Schedule to the said Act annexed, and all and every the Rules and Directions in the said Act, as in the said Schedule thereto, contained, in relation to the calculating, settling, and adjusting, and adjusting the Amount of the Money to be paid as the Whole, or as any Installment or Installments, of the Consideration for such Redemption or Purchase of Land Tax as aforesaid, in Cases where the Price of three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities shall be above forty, shall, in so far as the same are applicable, be used, observed, and professed in relation to the calculating, settling, settling, adjusting, and adjusting the Amount of the Money to be paid as the Whole, or as any Installment or Installments, of the Consideration for such Redemption or Purchase, in Cases where the Price of the said Annuities shall be between fifty and sixty, in the same Manner as if such Rules and Directions had been repeated in the Body of this Act, or in the Schedule thereto.

II. And be it further enacted, That whenever, by reason of any Variations in the Prices of the three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities, which are not specified in and provided for by the Tables contained in the said respective Schedules to the said recited Act and this Act annexed, it shall become necessary that other Tables should be transmitted to the respective Receivers or their Deputies in England, or to the Collectors in Scotland, in order to enable them to calculate, settle, and ascertain the Amount of the Money to be paid as the Consideration for the Redemption or Purchase of any Land Tax, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, to order and direct that proper Tables, adapted to meet such Variations in the Prices of the said Bank Annuities as aforesaid, shall be formed and constructed upon the same Principles as the Tables contained in the said Schedule to the said recited Act and this Act are formed and constructed; and that such Tables shall be transmitted by the Commissioners for the Affairs of the Treasury, or the Lord High Treasurer, or their Deputies in England, and to the Collectors in Scotland; and such Tables be transmitted as aforesaid shall be as valid and effectual to enable such Receivers-General, and their Deputies, and such Collectors respectively, to ascertain, settle, and adjust the Amount of the Money to be paid as the Whole, or as any Installment or Installments of the Consideration for the Redemption or Purchase of any Land Tax, as if such Tables had been contained in the said Schedule to the said Act annexed.

And Doth enacted or registered at any Time before passing this Act, or within six Months thereafter, shall be as valid, if so."

An Act for the further Prevention of malicious Shootings, and attempting to discharge loaded Fire-Arms, Rabbing, cutting, wounding, poisoning, and the malicious using of Mines to procure the Mischriage of Women; and also the malicious setting Fire to Buildings, and also for repelling a certain Act, made in England in the twenty-sixth Year of the late King James the First, intituled, An Act to prevent the defraying and murdering of English Children; and also an Act made in Sweden in the sixth Year of the Reign of the late Queen Anne, also intituled, An Act to prevent the defraying and murdering of English Children; and for making other Provisions in Res thereof.

[24th June 1803.]

WHEREAS divers cruel and barbarous Outrages have been of late wickedly and wantonly committed in divers Parts of England and Ireland, upon the Persons of divers of his Majesty's Subjects, either with an Intent to murder, or to rob, or to maim, disfigure, or mangle, or to do other grievous bodily Harm to such Subjects: And whereas the Provisions now by Law made for the Prevention of such Offences have been found insufficient for that Purpose: And whereas certain other heinous Offences, committed with Intent to defile by the Lives of his Majesty's Subjects by Poison, or with Intent to procure the Mischriage of Women, or with Intent by burning to destroy or injure the Buildings and other Property, of his Majesty's Subjects, or to prejudice Persons who have become Integers of or upon the same, have been of late also frequently committed, but no adequate Means have been hitherto provided for the Prevention and Punishment of such Offences: he it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons, from and after the first Day of July in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, shall, either in England or Ireland, wilfully, maliciously, and unlawfully shoot at any of his Majesty's Subjects, or shall wilfully, maliciously, and unlawfully poison, point, or level any Kind of loaded Fire-Arms at any of his Majesty's Subjects, and attempt, by drawing a Trigger, or in any other Manner, to discharge the same at or against his or their Person or Persons, or shall wilfully, maliciously, and unlawfully stab or cut any of his Majesty's Subjects, with Intent in fact doing, or by means thereof, to murder, or rob, or to maim, disfigure, or mangle such his Majesty's Subject or Subjects, or with Intent to do some other grievous bodily Harm to such his Majesty's Subject or Subjects, or with Intent to obstruct, null, or prevent the lawful Apprehension and Detainer of the Person or Persons so stabbing or cutting, or the lawful Apprehension and Detainer of any of his, her, or their Accomplices for any Offences for which he, she, or they may respectively be liable by Law to be apprehended, imprisoned, or detained, or shall wilfully, maliciously, and unlawfully administer to, or cause to be administered to or taken by any of his Majesty's Subjects, any deadly Poison, or other noxious and destructive Substance of Thing, with Intent that his Majesty's Subject or Subjects thereby to murder, or thereby to maim, and procure the Mischriage of any Woman then being quick with Child, or shall wilfully, maliciously, and unlawfully set Fire to any House, Barn, Granary, Hay Oath, Malthouse, Stable, Coach House, Outhouse, Mill, Warehouse, or Shop, whether such House, Barn, Granary, Hay Oath, Malthouse, Stable, Coach House, Outhouse, Mill, Warehouse, or Shop, shall then be in the Possession of the Person or Persons so setting Fire to the same, or in the Possession of any other Person or Persons, or of any Body Corporate, with Intent thereby to injure or defraud his Majesty or any of his Majesty's Subjects, or any Body Corporate, and then and in every such Case the Person or Persons so offending, their Executors, Aiders, and Abettors, knowing of and privy to such Offences, shall be and are hereby declared to be Felons, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony without Benefit of Clergy: Provided always, that in case it shall appear on the Trial of any Person or Persons indicted for the wilfully, maliciously, and unlawfully shooting at any of his Majesty's Subjects, or for wilfully, maliciously, and unlawfully poisoning, pointing, or leveling any Kind of loaded Fire-Arms at any of his Majesty's Subjects, and attempting, by drawing a Trigger, or in any other Manner, to discharge the same at or against him or their Person or Persons, or for the wilfully, maliciously, and unlawfully stabbing or cutting any of his Majesty's Subjects with such Intent as aforesaid, that such Acts of stabbing or cutting were committed under such Circumstances as that of Death had ensued therefrom, the same should not in Law have amounted to the Crime of Murder, that then and in every such Case the Person or Persons so indicted shall be deemed and taken to be not guilty of the Felony whereof they shall be so indicted, but be thereof acquitted.

And whereas it may sometimes happen that Poison or some other noxious and destructive Substance or Thing may be given, or other Means used, with Intent to procure Mischriage or Abortion, where the Woman may be quick with Child at the Time, or it may not be proved that she was quick with Child, he it therefore further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, from and after the first Day of July in the last Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, shall wilfully and maliciously administer to, or cause to be administered to, or taken by any Woman, any Medicine, Drug, or other Substance or Thing whatsoever, or shall use or employ, or cause or procure to be used or employed, any Instrument or other Means whatsoever, with Intent thereby to cause or procure the Mischriage of any Woman not being, or not being proved to be, quick with Child at the Time of administering such Things or using such Means, that then and in every such Case the Person or Persons so offending, their Executors, Aiders, and Abettors, knowing of and privy to such Offences, shall be and are hereby declared to be guilty of Felony, and shall be liable to be fined, imprisoned, or to be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding fourteen Years, at the Discretion of the Court before which such Offenders shall be tried and convicted.

And whereas it may sometimes happen that Poison or some other noxious and destructive Substance or Thing may be given, or other Means used, with Intent to procure Mischriage or Abortion, where the Woman may be quick with Child at the Time, or it may not be proved that she was quick with Child, he it therefore further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, from and after the first Day of July in the last Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, shall wilfully and maliciously administer to, or cause to be administered to, or taken by any Woman, any Medicine, Drug, or other Substance or Thing whatsoever, or shall use or employ, or cause or procure to be used or employed, any Instrument or other Means whatsoever, with Intent thereby to cause or procure the Mischriage of any Woman not being, or not being proved to be, quick with Child at the Time of administering such Things or using such Means, that then and in every such Case the Person or Persons so offending, their Executors, Aiders, and Abettors, knowing of and privy to such Offences, shall be and are hereby declared to be guilty of Felony, and shall be liable to be fined, imprisoned, or to be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding fourteen Years, at the Discretion of the Court before which such Offenders shall be tried and convicted.

And whereas it may sometimes happen that Poison or some other noxious and destructive Substance or Thing may be given, or other Means used, with Intent to procure Mischriage or Abortion, where the Woman may be quick with Child at the Time, or it may not be proved that she was quick with Child, he it therefore further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, from and after the first Day of July in the last Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, shall wilfully and maliciously administer to, or cause to be administered to, or taken by any Woman, any Medicine, Drug, or other Substance or Thing whatsoever, or shall use or employ, or cause or procure to be used or employed, any Instrument or other Means whatsoever, with Intent thereby to cause or procure the Mischriage of any Woman not being, or not being proved to be, quick with Child at the Time of administering such Things or using such Means, that then and in every such Case the Person or Persons so offending, their Executors, Aiders, and Abettors, knowing of and privy to such Offences, shall be and are hereby declared to be guilty of Felony, and shall be liable to be fined, imprisoned, or to be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding fourteen Years, at the Discretion of the Court before which such Offenders shall be tried and convicted.

III. And whereas Debts have been contracted expelling the true Sense and Meaning of a certain Act of Parliament, made in the tenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the first, entitled, An Act to prevent the distressing and mortgaging of English Children; and also of a certain other Act of Parliament, made in the fifth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, also entitled, An Act to prevent the distressing and mortgaging of English Children; and the same have been found to be contrary to the said Acts, and inconsistent to be put in Execution; for Remedy whereof, to be enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of July in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, the said two several Acts, and every Thing therein contained, shall be, and the same are hereby repealed; and that, from and after the said first Day of July in the said Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, the Trials in England and Ireland respectively of Women charged with the Murder of any Child of their Bodies, Male or Female, which being lawfully would by Law be before, shall proceed and be governed by such and the like Rules as in and about the said two several Acts had and are here made.

IV.
